PROPERTY CLEAN-UP PROGRAM

PROPERTY CLASS NOTICE OF TOWN MEETINGS IN PERRINE DUPONT

ATTENTION: OWNERS OF PROPERTY IN THE CLASS AREA* OF SPELTER, LUMBERPORT, ARLINGTON, HEPZIBAH, SHINSTON, AND MEADOWBROOK, WEST VIRGINIA

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. YOUR RIGHTS MAY BE AFFECTED. YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO REMEDIATION OF YOUR RESIDENTIAL OR COMMERCIAL PROPERTY.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the case of Perrine, et al., v. DuPont DeNemours and Company, Inc., in the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia has settled, and that you may be a property remediation class member.

WHAT IS THIS CASE ABOUT?

The plaintiffs, property owners in the Class Area in and around Spelter, West Virginia, sued seeking remediation of property because of alleged chemical contamination. Said contamination was allegedly caused by the zinc Smelter in Spelter. The Defendant, DuPont, denies all of the plaintiffs' claims. Nonetheless, the Court approved the Settlement on January 4, 2011 and provided for remediation of property for the Class Area.

Under this Settlement, the Honorable Thomas A. Bedell, the Circuit Judge of Harrison County, West Virginia, has approved remediation relief for properties in Zone 1A, Zone 1, Zone 2, or Zone 3 (as indicated by the map below), except the exempt Grasselli Properties.

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN THE PROPERTY REMEDIATION?

Approximately $34 Million is available for property remediation. The design of the remediation program will be determined by the Court following town meetings to be held at the Spelter West Virginia Volunteer Fire Station, located at 55B Street, Spelter, West Virginia, 28438, at 9:00AM and 2:00PM, during weekdays from February 28, 2011 to March 11, 2011, inclusive.

If you own property in the Class Area, other than a Grasselli property, you are invited to attend a town meeting to provide your input on the property remediation program decision of the Court. You do not have to attend a town meeting to participate as a Property Class Member. However, you will have to fill out a Property Class Member Registration Form to be approved later by the Court.
